APPLY NOW FOR THE 2021-2022

FAMILY LEADERSHIP SERIES

The voices of families are a powerful tool for creating system-wide change. For over 30 years, the Family Leadership Series has helped grow family leaders who create positive change within their families, communities, across the state and beyond every day.

ABOUT THE SERIES

The Family Leadership Series focuses on supporting families and caregivers to develop a Vision for their loved ones with disabilities to live an enviable life in their own community. This includes understanding advocacy as a means to create possibilities. Applications from families and caregivers of a loved one who meet eligibility from the Department of Developmental Services are encouraged to apply.

GET READY FOR A SIX MONTH, LIFE-CHANGING CRASH COURSE IN:

- Advocacy & Leadership
- Creating a Vision
- Policy-Making
- Self-Care

The Series includes overnight lodging at area Hotels and virtual sessions.
